

GROWING AGRICULTURE

together.

Name: _____

LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY

Did you know over 332 million people are living in the United States? And over 7.5 billion people living here on planet earth? That's a lot of people to feed! So how does meat get from the farm to the table? Read the clues below about the livestock industry to fill in the crossword puzzle.

DOWN

- Working together with two or more people as partners
- Labels their products locally for use in restaurants & stores
- Farmers and ranchers work tirelessly to provide safe, nutritious what for families?
- Producers must make sure their livestock has access to clean, free what?
- The person who is hired to harvest the livestock
- This partnership benefits both the producer and the contractor because of the expertise each person brings
- An animal that is raised for food products such as eggs (UP)

ACROSS

- An animal that is raised for food products such as bacon
- Where producers raise livestock and crops
- When a consumer goes to the farm to purchase livestock
- Specialize in raising animals at a certain stage of growth
- 98% of farm operations are still owned in this way
- Producers keep their animals healthy and happy by protecting them from the extremes of this
- A food establishment that can serve locally-grown products

Name: _____

LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY

Did you know over 332 million people are living in the United States? And over 7.5 billion people living here on planet earth? That's a lot of people to feed! So how does meat get from the farm to the table? Read the clues below about the livestock industry to fill in the crossword puzzle.

DOWN

- Working together with two or more people as partners
- Labels their products locally for use in restaurants & stores
- Farmers and ranchers work tirelessly to provide safe, nutritious what for families?
- Producers must make sure their livestock has access to clean, free what?
- The person who is hired to harvest the livestock
- This partnership benefits both the producer and the contractor because of the expertise each person brings
- An animal that is raised for food products such as eggs (UP)

ACROSS

- An animal that is raised for food products such as bacon
- Where producers raise livestock and crops
- When a consumer goes to the farm to purchase livestock
- Specialize in raising animals at a certain stage of growth
- 98% of farm operations are still owned in this way
- Producers keep their animals healthy and happy by protecting them from the extremes of this
- A food establishment that can serve locally-grown products